COL. ROOSEVELT'S WOUND IS SERIOUS, THINK PHYSICIANS

BULLET IS LODGED NEAR VITAL PART

Patient Rests Quietly and Seems to Be in no Immediate Danger

ALL ENGAGEMENTS CANCELLED

Examination Shows Roosevelt Had a Miraculous Escape From Death—Blood Poisoning the Only Complication Feared.

Mercy Hospital, Chicago, Oct. 15.—Former President Roosevelt was resting fairly easy tonight and his physicians said, after a day of nervous strain, that they were pleased with his condition. The clinical record showed, however, that his condition was hardly as favorable as when he entered the hospital this morning on his arrival from Milwaukee. His pulse at 10 o'clock tonight was 86, or 14 counts above normal, and two counts above the record two hours after he was shot. His temperature was 99.2, or three-fifths of a degree above normal. It was believed the night would indicate whether the pistol wound inflicted on him last night by John Schrank, in Milwaukee, would heal normally.

Dr. John B. Murphy, who is in charge of the case, left the hospital before 10 o'clock for the night.

Col. Roosevelt is resting quietly, he said. "He had a small dinner. There was less distress in his breathing. His general condition is exceptionally good and he should have a good night."

All of the attending physicians left the hospital for the night except Dr. Scurry Terrell, who remained in a room next to that of the patient. It was said no further examinations of the wound would be made until 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, when there will be a consultation.

Tetanus anti-toxin was injected into the colonel's abdomen a short time before he went to sleep.

A rise in temperature followed, together with slight local irritations. Otherwise the colonel exhibited no symptoms from the anti-toxin, although the surgeons were prepared for the slightest nausea and dizziness which sometimes comes after the treatment. The three-fifths of a degree of temperature, it is said, were not caused by the condition of the wound, as up to the time of the injection the patient's temperature practically was normal. The increase in the rate of his pulse is not accounted for.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Theodore Roosevelt was not merely superficially wounded by the bullet fired into his breast yesterday in Milwaukee by John Schrank, it was determined tonight by surgeons after all day examinations and consultations, and that the colonel must not see or speak to any one for several days without permission of the doctors.

The wound was definitely described as a "serious wound in the chest" and not a mere flesh wound. The late bulletin which prohibited communication between Col. Roosevelt and others than his attendants, declared that "quietude is absolutely essential."

The surgeons asserted, however, that it was not yet necessary to probe for the bullet and the patient probably will be kept as his nature will allow him for a few days.

The patient slept well at intervals during the day, ate ravenously of articles customarily making up his bill of fare, read lengthy extracts from MacAuley and hinted to his physician that he would not object to a ride in the fresh air.

Finally learning that the correspondents accompanying him on his speaking tour, who had left him after the assault in Milwaukee to file their news matter, had rejoined his entourage at the hospital, Col. Roosevelt insisted that the edict of his physicians against communication with him be ignored for the time.

He received the newspaper men with an apology for not arising, jested with them about his condition and told them, "I'll hurry up and get out of here so I can keep you busy again."

In opening the door to his room to admit the correspondents the heavy odor of heaps of flowers banked high in the ante-room flooded the colonel's apartment and he inhaled deeply several times. The extra effort caused a little pain, however, and when the doors were shut again he instructed his nurse to present part of the flowers to other patients in the hospital. This was done.

His doctors, however, did not feel inclined today to allow him to leave inside of 10 days so that they might have no break in their minute by minute watch for possible infection from the bullet.

Unofficially it was made known today that the physicians do not consider it necessary to probe for or operate to remove the bullet. It lies, as shown by the X-ray photographs brought from Milwaukee, by Dr. J. D. Jannsen and corroborated by others taken in Mercy Hospital, not far from the breast bone on the right side and probably five inches below the collar bone. The missile did not get inside the ribs, but ploughed upward and inward for a distance of some five inches from where it entered.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The flesh along the course of the bullet showed no discoloration today and there appeared to the physicians no cause for concern from any feature of the assault.

Col. Roosevelt wishes that his friends, and particularly members of his family who are en route to Chicago, should not be unduly apprehensive at his condition. He protested against the edict barring callers from his room, but acceded when the consulting physicians endorsed the plan.

He was anxious to greet members of his family. The first he was to see was his daughter, Mrs. Alice Longworth, whose train was to arrive from Cincinnati in time for her to have dinner with her father. His concern all day was not for himself, but for those he believed were likely to be too fearful of his condition.

He read all the hundreds of telegrams that poured into the hospital and was particularly delighted with several from men of note he met while abroad.

Outside the hospital grounds a curious crowd hung all day asking for news from all the callers who left the institution. Each was hailed as he left with an appeal for "inside information," but none was available besides the bulletins posted early in the day.

So many newspaper men gathered in the office of the hospital in response to demands from their papers that they obtain fresh reports, that the house authorities finally asked them to leave, and the reporters gathered outside with the rest of the crowd.

All of Col. Roosevelt's speaking dates were cancelled today, save on tomorrow night at Louisville, Ky. To that city former Senator Albert Beveridge, of Indiana, was sent after a conference with the candidate with a message the colonel insisted be read to his friends there.

No announcement regarding future plans of Col. Roosevelt were made today, all such action depending upon the length of time demanded of him by the physicians.

Until the ultimatum of the doctors against callers the corridor outside Col. Roosevelt's room was filled with those coming or going and with those who sought to extend any aid that might be useful.

After the order was issued the corridor became as quiet as on days when the roster of patients contained no name so well known as that of the colonel.

His room on the third floor is in the southwest corner of the building and at the south end of the corridor. It is No. 314 and that next to it 312, serves as an ante-room and consulting room. No. 310 is occupied by Dr. Terrell, the colonel's personal physician and by J. W. McGrath, Col. Roosevelt's secretary.

Out in the corridor all afternoon watch was kept by a patrolman and here the small band of attendants gathered, and from the discussion new light was thrown on the actual story of the assault.

It was disclosed that Albert E. Martin, the secretary who seized the assailant, saw the pistol before the shot was fired and the weapon was discharged just as he flung himself upon Schrank. Powerful of build, he was forcing Schrank's neck back till the assailant was gasping for breath. Henry F. Cochems, who had arisen from his seat in the automobile, shouted several times: "Don't kill him, John, don't kill him, John."

Martin, holding the assailant in a grip fast rendering him unconscious, shouted back resentfully, "My name's not John."

The colonel laughed at the incident and recalled it today.

Col. Roosevelt talked little today of the assault. Most of that discussion was in jests with those who called on him.

When the physicians turned back the covers on his bed, the better to examine his wound, Col. Roosevelt exclaimed, forgetful of his condition, "Don't lose my place, doctor; don't lose my place." He referred to a book the physician had laid to one side and which contained the essays by MacAulay, which had furnished him an interesting hour.

He asked seriously how his would looked and leaned his head forward from his half sitting posture and surveyed it himself. "That doesn't look bad, doctor," he said, "what do you think?"

"That, as it is, doesn't bother us," responded Dr. Murphy, nodding to his fellows, Dr. Arthur Dean Devan and Dr. Terrell, who accompanied him, "it's what you do to it."

The patient raised his eyebrows interrogatively and was informed that the doctors, by way of precaution, felt he had better see no one so that the rest would remove further any possibility of a set-back. He was disappointed for a few minutes, but the examination being over and a pint of buttermilk having been ordered, he reached again for his books.

An hour's sleep kept up his good spirits and he said it had been the

BECKER'S COUNSEL OUTLINES DEFENSE

Will Attempt to Prove Gamblers Instigated Rosenthal's Murder.

SAM SCHEPPS ON THE STAND

Missing Link in Sensational Case Corroborates the Gunmen's Testimony and Supplies Some Additional Evidence.

New York, Oct. 15.—Gamblers and not Police Lieut. Becker instigated the murder of Herman Rosenthal, according to the line of defense indicated by counsel for the accused officer at today's session of his trial. A large sum of money, raised by gamblers, was paid to get Rosenthal out of New York, when he began to "squeal" on the subject of police protection, and when he took the money and then refused to go, the gamblers threatened with the loss of their protection, plotted and executed his murder through the agency of the four gunmen.

At least such was the outline of the defense implied in questions put by John F. McIntyre, Becker's counsel, to Sam Schepps on the witness stand today.

Schepps was not given an opportunity to say whether he had knowledge that such was the origin of the murder plot, for Justice Goff excluded the questions.

The witness merely looked bored. He had spent practically the entire day on the stand corroborating testimony of Jack Rose, "Bridgie" Webber and Harry Vallon, the trio of self-confessed accomplices who accuse Becker of having inspired the murder.

Schepps added another link to the chain of evidence against the defendant by swearing that Becker had asked him if the gunmen had been paid for their work. He also testified he had been a bearer of a reassuring message from Becker to Jack Rose, when the latter was in hiding, "ready to commit suicide" at the home of Harry Pollock. Schepps' part in the plot was that of messenger to Rose in rounding up the gunmen, but he denied that he knew the killing of Rosenthal was on foot. He did not fully comprehend, he said, until Jack Rose had made a clean breast of it "to him, and then in the "advice of counsel" he got out of town.

Mr. McIntyre's efforts to break down the testimony of the witness resulted in frequent word tilts between them, that Justice Goff was obliged to curtail. Becker's attorney tried again and again to make Schepps admit he had been an accomplice in the crime, but the witness appeared always with a ready explanation for the part he had taken.

"Jack Rose told me to do it," was his most frequent excuse for his various actions.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Judge Hand, in the United States District Court, this afternoon dismissed the suit brought by the Journal of Commerce against Postmaster Hitchcock and Attorney General Wickersham, to test the constitutionality of the newspaper publicity law. In so doing, he sustained demurrers interposed by the Government.

OUTLINES

The Senate committee investigating campaign contributions heard several witnesses yesterday and adjourned till Thursday.

After months of diplomatic strife, Ottoman and Italian plenipotentiaries yesterday signed the protocol of a peace treaty, which ends the war between Italy and Turkey.

Gov. Wilson announced last night that he would cancel all speaking engagements, with the exception of those arranged for this week, until Col. Roosevelt is able to take an active part in the campaign.

In questions asked Sam Schepps testifying yesterday in the Becker case, counsel for the police lieutenant intimated their defense would likely rest on efforts to show that Rosenthal was murdered by gamblers who wanted to get him out of their way because he "squealed on them."

Colonel Roosevelt's wound was yesterday found to be more serious than at first thought, and attending physicians stated that he was seriously wounded in the chest. Last night he was resting quietly and appeared to be in no immediate danger. All his speaking engagements for the remainder of the campaign have been cancelled.

Driving "Smoky Joe" Wood from the box in the first inning, the New York Giants yesterday won the seventh game of the world's series from the Boston Red Sox, and both teams are now on equal terms. The deciding battle will be staged in Boston today, and Mathewson will likely oppose Bedient.

New York markets: Money on call firm, 4 5-8 to 5 per cent.; ruling rate 4 7-8; closing bid 4 3-4; offered at 4 7-8. Spot cotton closed quiet. Flour unsettled. Wheat easy; No. 2 red 1.06. Corn steady 59 1-2. Turpentine easy. Rosin quiet.

THE $5,000 MARK ALREADY PASSED

Systematic Work From Now On Sure to Turn the Trick.

WHAT ONE LITTLE BOY DID

Cato Littleton, Jr., Nine Years Old, Sets the Pace for Wilmington—One Bid on Mercer Place Lot—Blue Book

At a meeting of the team captains at the office of the General Chairman last night, the gladsome news was announced that the actual cash subscriptions to the Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund had passed the $5,000 mark and the canvassers are now on the last leg of the race with assurances from many sources that the full amount of $10,000 will be realized in the not distant future.

One Wilmington youngster set the pace for the entire city of Wilmington. His name is Cato Littleton, Jr., nine years old, and he walked into the store of Messrs. Peck & Holloway and gave to Mr. Holloway $1.00 for the fund. This represented to the young man much more than a hundred-dollar contribution would mean to the average citizen of Wilmington.

The canvass has now narrowed down to this: Will Wilmington make good on her proposition to give $10,000 to the Wilson campaign fund? Can she afford not to make good? How much would you give to help Wilmington make good? How much would you give before you would see Wilmington fall down on the proposition? Every loyal Wilmingtonian is put on his or her mettle in this matter and the committee believes that each and everyone will make good. Public spirit prompts it, if not the greater consideration of electing a President absolutely free from the dominating influences of the interests.

A number of things militated against the best work by the teams yesterday but at the general meeting of the team captains last night a system was evolved that beats the "system," as it is ordinarily known in political parlance. Much more effective work will be done in future and the next few days will bring results. The lot in Mercer Place offered by Mr. J. B. Mercer yesterday proved a winner for the fund and $50 was bid the first shot out of the box. This is subject to increase and proposals for the purchase of this desirable property should be addressed to Chairman W. A. McGirt at once. Here is an opportunity to make a safe and attractive investment and at the same time make a good donation. Bids will be published from day to day.

Already in the contribution of funds, Wilmington and New Hanover county have achieved a marked distinction in financing the campaign of a President by the people and those behind the mavement here feel that some substantial recognition should be made in permanent form of this fact. To that end a movement has been set on foot to preserve a list of every contributor in the form of a Blue Book which will be compiled just as soon as the campaign is over. The part taken in this momentous fight by Wilmington and New Hanover county is regarded by many as a demonstration of the true Cape Fear spirit and deserving just as much of perpetuation as the Old Brunswick tea party and a score of other heroic deeds of the patriots of Colonial days. This work will show the contributions by trades and professions and will contain much other valuable data about the campaign of 1912 that will deserve preservation in proper form. In announcing this work, The Star's valued evening contemporary remarks:

"It has been decided to adopt this plan because Wilmington is going to make a splendid record and it ought to be perpetuated.

"It is difficult to see history while we are making it; but the men who take part in financing this Presidential campaign will have helped to meet one of the greatest issues, probably the greatest issue, which ever faced this country.

"We can see at a glance that unless the policy of allowing the great corporations to raise funds for Presidential campaigns is made unnecessary, that this government will prove a failure. It will be worse for us than if we were overwhelmed by some foreign nation; because we could rise and recover from defeat in war, as the South has recovered from the Civil War; but we could not recover from the financial servitude which will surely crush us if we do not rise up at the present time and meet the situation.

"In every historical crisis there are people who appear afterwards occasionally and make claims to have done essential things. George Washington had many 'body servants.' This Blue Book, however, will be written with mathematical accuracy and can be handed down to future generations without the questions and doubts which usually arise."

GIANTS HIT WOOD AND WIN 11 TO 4

Bury "Smoky Joe" Under Avalanche of Hits in Initial Inning and Even Up Series for World's Championship—Two Home Runs Made—Mathewson vs. Bedient in the Deciding Battle Occurring Today.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 15.—The New York Giants, pennant winners of the National League, administered a crushing defeat to the Boston Americans today by a score of 11 to 4 in the seventh game of the world's series. Tonight finds the Giants and the Red Sox waiting to engage in the final combat here tomorrow, that is expected to determine which team shall be the world's champions of 1912.

The series now stands: Boston, three games won; New York, three games won; one contest a tie.

"Smoky" Joe Wood, the Red Sox star twirler, who already had beaten the Giants twice in the series, was sent out to pitch the Red Sox into the world's championship. His end was so swift and so sudden that the 30,000 spectators sat in silence at Fenway Park as they saw his delivery batted to all parts of the field, and six Giant players were over the home plate before the last New Yorker was put out in the first inning. The Red Sox never recovered from that first inning and though they peppered away fitfully at Tesreau's moist ball, they never came within threatening distance of the Giants. Manager McGraw, in the coacher's box down off third base, directed the attack on Wood. He gave orders to hit the first ball pitched and with few exceptions all of the nine men who batted in the first inning rapped the first ball sent up. This shower of hits, combined with a double steal, paved the way to New York's six runs. Thereafter Wood was a broken reed and Charlie Hall, Boston's relief pitcher, was sent into the box.

The Red Sox have Hugh Bedient to go on the firing line tomorrow in the deciding game with Wood prepared to go to his assistance, while the Giants will depend on Mathewson with Marquard held in reserve.

Tesreau held the whip hand throughout today's game. His moist ball broke sharply over the plate and the Red Sox were unable to fathom his delivery when hits would have scored runs.

Twelve red-legged players were left anchored on bases.

Although New York had a commanding lead throughout the game, McGraw kept Mathewson warmed up to relieve Tesreau in case he weakened. After making six runs in the first inning the Giants scored another tally in the second, two more in the sixth, one in the seventh and one in the ninth inning. The Red Sox got their first run in the second inning when Gardner shot a screaming home run into the right field seats, the first circuit drive of the series. Two more runs were scored in the seventh and another in the eighth by the home club.

Captain Doyle, of New York, drove a liner into the crowd in right field for a home run in the sixth, sending in Devore ahead of him. There were seven strikeouts in the game. Herzog was the only man on the Giant team to fan. The Red Sox who were struck out were Hooper twice, Yerkes, Gardner, Wagner and Cady once each. The game was loosely played in the field, while a gale made it difficult for the fielders to get under fly balls. Play was suspended frequently when dense clouds of dust whirled across the diamond.

Manager McGraw said tonight: "The Red Sox have broken and are on the run." He added that with the same aggressive attack made tomorrow the Giants would be carried to victory. McGraw said his club was thoroughly instilled with the fighting spirit and that the players showed a return to the form that had won them so many victories in the National League in the Spring and early Summer.

Manager Stahl remarked: "All clubs have form reversals, but the rebound is always violent. Tomorrow will tell another story for the Red Sox."

The attendance at today's game was 32,694, while the receipts amounted to $57,196. Of this sum each club receives $25,738.20, while the National Commission's share is $5,529.60.

The weather up to noon was mild, but toward 2 o'clock a wind storm came up, accompanied by heavy dark clouds and the temperature fell, making it uncomfortable for spectators and players alike.

Thick clouds of dust swept across the field when the game began.

Joe Wood was given a hearty reception when he stepped into the pitchers' box. His first offering to Devore was called a ball, and the next ball pitched was hit toward Wagner. The shortstop could not field it in time and the runner was safe. Doyle drove a single to center and Devore advanced to second. On the first ball pitched Devore and Doyle caught the Red Sox pitcher napping as they pulled off a double steal. Snodgrass here came to time with a rattling two-base hit to right field and Devore and Doyle came across with New York's first runs. Murray sacrificed, Stahl making the out unassisted, Snodgrass taking third. Merkle then tapped a fly to left field, but the stiff wind carried it toward the infield and the ball fell safe for a single. Snodgrass scored on this play and Merkle took second on the throw-in. Herzog chopped a grounder to Wood and Merkle was run down between second and third base, Wagner getting an assist and Gardner the put-out. Herzog took second on the play.

"Chief" Meyers singled to left and Herzog scored New York's fourth run. Fletcher cracked a single to right and Hooper made a perfect throw to third to head off Meyers, but Gardner muffed the ball, Meyers was safe and the New York shortstop took second on the throw-in. Big "Jeff" Tesreau, the ninth New Yorker to go to the plate in the inning, singled past Wood and Meyers came home with the fifth run. Fletcher and Tesreau then attempted a double steal, but Tesreau was caught between the bags, but not before Fletcher slid to the plate with New York's sixth run.

The Giants added another run in the score in the second inning. Hall went in to pitch for Boston and promptly issued a base on balls to Devore, who again stole second on the first ball pitched. Doyle was also given a free pass on four balls, but a moment later Hall caught Devore napping, Wagner taking the throw. Snodgrass shot a single into right field and Doyle moved to the middle bag. Hall tried to repeat the play he made on Devore and in throwing to catch Doyle off the bag hurled the ball to center field and the New York captain came home, Snodgrass reaching third on the error. Murray sent a fly to Wagner and Merkle closed the inning by grounding out, Wagner to Stahl.

Boston scored its first run in the second inning. Gardner smashed a terrific drive to right centerfield, the ball bounding over the three-foot fence into the crowd for a home run, the first made in the series. Stahl sent up a high foul that Meyers captured. Wagner sliced a grounder at Tesreau, who was unable to pick up the ball and Fletcher, rushing in, scooped it up and threw the runner out at first. Cady struck out.

New York added two runs to her score in the sixth inning. Tesreau grounded out, Yerkes to Stahl. Devore was given a base on balls and Doyle brought him home and scored himself on a home run hit that bounded into the right field crowd. Snodgrass flied to Lewis, and Murray was the third out, Hall to Stahl.

The Giants garnered their 10th run in the seventh inning. Merkle opened with a single to center. Herzog went out on a drive to Lewis. On a fielder's choice on Meyers' grounder, Merkle was safe at second as was also Meyers at first. Fletcher flied out to Speaker. Tesreau cracked a single to right field and Merkle scored, while Meyers advanced to second. Devore flied out to Lewis.

The "lucky seventh" brought two more runs to the Red Sox. Wilson, in this inning, succeeded Meyers. Yerkes grounded weakly to Fletcher and was out at first. Speaker singled to center and went to third on Lewis' two-base hit to left field. Gardner grounded out, Fletcher to Merkle and Speaker scored. Doyle fumbled Stahl's easy grounder and Lewis came across the plate with Boston's second run of the inning. Wagner was out on strikes.

Boston's fourth run was put together in the eighth inning. Doyle muffed Cady's high fly after he thought one of the fielders was after it. Hall hit to right field and Cady took third base while Devore slightly fumbled the ball. Hooper then sent Cady home by driving out a sacrifice fly to Snodgrass. Yerkes hit to Tesreau, who deflected the ball to Fletcher, scooping it up, threw Hall out at second. Tesreau uncorked another wild pitch and Yerkes went to second, where he was left when Speaker grounded out, Doyle to Merkle.

New York got its last run in the ninth inning. Herzog received a base, went to third on Wilson's single and scored on Speaker's bad throw to head him off at that bag. Fletcher sent up a fly to Speaker, who ran in and touched second base and doubled up Wilson, who did not know that the ball had been caught. Tesreau received a base on balls and Devore was out, Yerkes to Stahl.

GEORGETOWN-A. & M. OCT. 17TH.

Big Game Fair Week at Raleigh Tomorrow—Hilltoppers Very Strong But Techs Are Hopeful—Crowds Expected

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 15.—Thursday the A. & M. football team will go up against the strongest eleven that it will encounter during the whole season, with the exception of the game with the Navy, which will be played in November at Annapolis. This will be Georgetown which will play the regular Fair Week game against A. & M. in West Raleigh.

Last year Georgeton won the championship of the South Atlantic division, and this year has practically all of its old men back, and will undoubtedly have one of the strongest teams in the South. A. & M. on the other hand, is composed largely of new material, with only seven of last year's monogram men back. However, there are a number of last year's substitutes which are showing up well this year, and with these, together with some new men, Coach Green has whipped together a strong team which will give Georgetown all it can handle. Two years ago A. & M. played the Hilltoppers to a standstill, neither side being able to score, and when the whistle blew the Techs had the ball on Georgetown's one-yard line. However, A. & M. this year is not composed of the seasoned veterans of two years ago, while the Georgetown team is just as strong, if not stronger, than at that time. A. & M. is very strong in the line this year, and the Hilltoppers will have to do some mighty hard playing to get to the Red and White goal. Although the backfield might be a little faster, it showed marked improvement last Saturday with the Medical College of Virginia, although the weather was very hot, and with a few more days of practice before the game on Thursday, and also with the change in the weather, they should be in pretty good condition to go up against the Hilltoppers.

Every man will be on his mettle in this game, and will put up a big fight, and this will undoubtedly be one of the biggest football games that will be played in the South this year. It will prove one of the biggest attractions during the State Fair, this week. Although the odds seem to be in favor of Georgetown A. & M. is known for putting up the biggest fight against the strongest team, and Georgetown will have to play mighty hard if it succeeds in winning this game.

AN APPEAL TO RED CROSS

Local Chapter Will Receive Funds for Relief In Balkan Situation

Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, president of the Wilmington Chapter of the National Red Cross Society, yesterday afternoon received the following telegram which is self-explanatory:

"Washington, D. C., Oct. 15th.

"Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, 420 South Front street, Wilmington, N. C.

"The Red Cross is in receipt of a cablegram from the wife of the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Greece, asking on behalf of the Greek Red Cross financial assistance and trained nurses from the American Red Cross; also a cablegram from the American Ambassador at Constantinople, asking the co-operation of the American Red Cross with the Red Crescent Society. President Taft has issued through the Associated Press a call for contributions and it is requested that you give this matter as much publicity as possible in the daily papers of your city, giving name and address of Chapter Treasurer to receive money contributions.

"CHAS. L. MAGEE, Secretary."

Mrs. Martin is acting treasurer of the Wilmington Chapter and will be glad to receive any and all contributions that may be made. The Greek citizens of Wilmington should especially heed this call and assist with any funds that they may send to their countrymen. Others are also asked to do likewise.

BALKAN ULTIMATUM TODAY.

Coalition Must Send Note to Porte Before Fighting.

London, Oct. 15.—Turkey's refusal to reply to the note of the Balkan States will in all probability impel these States to address an actual ultimatum to the Porte tomorrow before commencing hostilities. The ministers of Bulgaria, Servia and Greece are still waiting in Constantinople, although diplomatic relations are virtually ended by the recall of the Turkish ministers from Sofia, Belgrade and Athens. The conclusion of peace between Italy and Turkey removes much of the uneasiness felt in Europe as to the consequences of the Balkan war.

The only additional military news reached here today told of the capture of the fortress at Houms by the Montenegrins.

Premier Venizelos, in the Greek chamber, announced that the Greek fleet was equipped for a war lasting a year.

Berlin, Oct. 15.—Turkey is negotiating with German manufacturers for the purchase of aeroplanes and has also engaged military aviators as trainers. Both Turkey and the Balkan States are making endeavors to buy war automobiles in Germany.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Rather Lengthy Session of County Tribunal Yesterday Morning.

Yesterday's session of the Recorder's court was a rather lengthy one, lasting until about noon. Substitute Recorder George Harriss presided. A case against "Bob" Everitt, a white man, charged with larceny by trick, was left open for judgment until today. The defendant was represented by L. Clayton Grant, Esq. Investigation of the difficulty between Messrs. Melvin Horne and D. L. T. Capps was continued until next Tuesday. Mr. Horne has been under a peace bond for several weeks and yesterday Mr. Capps was required to give peace bond for $200, pending further hearing of the matter.

Mr. N. E. Gallagher was required to pay the costs for obstructing the sidewalk with some boards which had been left on granolithic paving. Ben Lane, a witness in this case, was fined $2 for putting on his hat in the court room. The fine was later remitted.

The trial of a case against Mr. Jos. T. Pitter, a young man, for assault with deadly weapon, to-wit: a stick, on Mr. T. S. Kern, an aged citizen, on August 19th, in Cape Fear township, occupied considerable time. The prosecution was represented by L. Clayton Grant, Esq., while W. M. Bellamy, Esq., appeared for the defendant. A fine of $25 and costs was imposed on the defendant, making a total of $41.40, which was paid.

Arthur Brown, a Greek, was found not guilty of an assault on Lawrence Spooner, a young white man. The latter testified that the Greek was merely playing with him when he was arrested by an officer.

Two cases against John Robinson, colored, were continued until today. The defendant is charged with fast driving and with violating the driving ordinance. A case against Lee Price, colored, for attempted house breaking, was continued until today at the request of the defendant, who asked that a witness in his behalf be summoned.

Billy Burke took the free-for-all trot in straight heats and Ess H. Kay won the 2:00 class pace, also in straight heats.

The 2:16 pace was the most closely contested event of the day. It was a fight to the finish between Pete and Lucille Brooks.

PROGRESSIVES PROTEST

Florida Democrats Must Place Candidates on Ballot by Petition

Tampa, Fla., Oct. 15.—The names of Democratic nominees for all State offices and Presidential electors can only be placed on the ballot in Florida for the November election by petition because of a protest filed by the Progressive party, it was announced tonight.

The protest filed in every county in the State by Herbert L. Anderson, State committeeman of the Progressive party, is based on the contention that the returns from the recent primaries have not been properly certified. Democratic National Committeeman Crawford tonight wired Democrats in every county in the State, asking that the county committees have the names of the Democratic nominees placed on the ballot by petition.

The time for filing names on the ballot expires tomorrow.

SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA

Rev. W. McC. White, of Raleigh, Elected Moderator—Centennial in Richmond—Sermon by Retiring Moderator—Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 15.—This morning at 11 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, the Synod of North Carolina convened in its 99th annual session.

Participating in the opening devotional services were Rev. R. L. Wharton, missionary to Cuba; Rev. C. M. Richards, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church at Davidson College, and Rev. W. R. Minter, of Lincolnton, the last named being the retiring moderator of the Synod. Mr. Minter preached the opening sermon.

Mr. Minter urged the importance of Christians today being impelled by the same forces in their work that impelled Paul in his work. Immediately after the sermon Synod was constituted with prayer, Rev. G. L. Cook, of Rutherfordton, leading the prayer.

Several ballots were necessary before a moderator was elected, and on the last of these, Rev. W. McC. White, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Raleigh, was chosen. He was escorted to the pulpit by Dr. Sumerell, and received the gavel from Mr. Minter.

Dr. White expressed his appreciation to the Synod for the honor bestowed upon him, and said that he felt he was not qualified for a moderator, and that he would depend largely upon the members of Synod to assist him in the work devolving upon him.

Tomorrow morning the members of Synod will go in a body to Richmond and unite with the Synod of Virginia now in session in that city, in the centennial celebration of Union Theological Seminary, which will take place tomorrow afternoon and evening. The Synod of North Carolina will return to Goldsboro Thursday and resume its sessions.

WOODWARD ELECTED.

Defeats Chambers for Mayor of Atlanta—Vice Crusade.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 15.—James G. Woodward today defeated Aldine Chambers by a majority of 717 votes in Atlanta's second mayoralty primary, which is equivalent to an election.

Woodward polled 5,281 votes against 4,564 for Chambers. In the first primary, held two weeks ago, today's contestants polled the highest vote.

Interest in today's primary centered chiefly in the attitude shown by the candidates in regard to the vice crusade recently inaugurated by Chief of Police Beavers. Chief Beavers issued orders for the closing of every house in the restricted district and every disorderly place in the city.

Chambers announced that he would support Beavers in the crusade, if nominated. Woodward was non-committal. Many preachers in the city churches urged that votes be cast for Chambers at services held last Sunday.

Profits Doubled With The Benthall Peanut Picker!

If you grow peanuts and do not use a Benthall Peanut Picker, you actually lose money by not owning one.

The Benthall makes peanut growing doubly profitable.

The wages you pay—the losses from delays in not getting your crop early to market—the losses from birds and stealing—cost you more than a machine.

If you own a Benthall, you and your boys can do the work of a hundred hands, and do it better. You send your crop to market early—secure highest prices. You stop the theft of your crop.

Growers now see that hand picking is far too costly.

The folly of attemping to "thresh" them has been plainly shown.

For machines that "thresh" them destroy profits.

They crack the nuts—and cracked nuts will not keep.

They grind the vines to smithereens—and these vines are the equal of alfalfa for feed—worth from $12 to $20 per ton.

Contrast such machines with the Benthall.

The vines are fed to the Benthall just as grain to the treshing machine.

The peanuts are pulled off the vine without injury to the shell. The machine picks as delicately as human fingers—hundreds of times more rapidly.

Many buyers give preference to Benthall picked nuts.

The vines are saved in perfect condition for hay.

The recleaning and bagging attachment makes it unnecessary to run the peanuts over for seed the second time.

This is the picker of proved worth—proved out in the peanut fields of Virginia.

Either Spanish or Virginia varieties are picked equally as well.

It is mounted—ready to hitch—as you would a farm wagon. You can easily move it from place to place.

There are models suited for horse or engine power—machines that are made interchangeable.

Every year sees more farmers using the Benthall. It has supplanted all other methods in many sections. And the demand this year promises to be greater than we can supply.

THE MACHINE THAT PAYS FOR ITSELF.

If you don't want to let profits slip thru your fingers—if you want to make money growing peanuts, write us for our folder "How the Benthall Pays For Itself." Sent Free upon request.

GREAT STATE FAIR IS OPEN

Opening Exercises Yesterday—Chamber of Commerce of State—State Farm Exhibits—Other Raleigh News Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 15.—This is the first day of the great North Carolina State Fair—the fifty-second annual event since the North Carolina Agricultural Society was formed for this purpose over a half century ago. The opening day was ideal in clear, bright weather conditions and the fair is in splendid form and there is sure to be a record-breaking attendance as well as the already unprecedented excellence and scope of exhibits and general fair attractions.

The gates of the fair ground swung open to the public at 6 o'clock this morning, but it required until around noon for the finishing touches to be placed on some of the exhibits and the midway and other features to get in full swing. The opening ceremonies were at noon when President E. F. McRae presented to the c rowd Governor W. W. Kitchin as the orator for the formal opening of the fair. In presenting Governor Kitchin Mr. McRae referred to the splendid cooperation he has received during the two fairs that he has directed as president of the society and to the splendid work of Secretary Joseph E. Pogue, who has for years been the main spring and master hand in making the fair from year to year. To Treasurer S. L. Rotter, the combination financier and newspaper man, who has been Col. Pogue's "Man Friday," he also paid deserved tribute.

Governor Kitchin made a characteristically forcible speech touching upon North Carolina's progress in industrial life such as the fair reflects and bade the people of the State and from other States welcome to this the greatest State fair.

An innovation this year will be the opening of the fair grounds at night. The grounds will be open on Wednesday and Thursday nights, with the fair and the midway in full swing.

The First Presbyterian church, of this city, has just formed a new church at one of its numerous county missions, Mount Pleasant, near Willow Springs. The new church begins with 56 members and has a neat and commodious building.

Thirty representatives of Chambers of Commerce and boards of trade in various sections of the State in adjourned session today here, perfected the organization of the North Carolina Chamber of Commerce, preliminary steps for the organization of which were recently made in Greensboro. Officers elected today are president, Fred N. Tate, High Point; vice presidents, General J. S. Carr, Durham; H. A. Ramseur, Fayetteville, and A. K. Joy, Hickory; secretary and organizer, Fred A. Olds, Raleigh; treasurer, Jno. O. Ellington, Raleigh; executive committee, the president and secretary and E. W. Thompson, Charlotte; F. I. Sutton, Kinston; R. C. Hood, Goldsboro. In perfecting the organization today one or more representatives were here from Greensboro, Charlotte, Goldsboro, Winston-Salem, High point, Fayetteville, Hickory, Statesville. Following the organization there was an informal discussion of freight rate discriminations and the contemplated fight in the Legislature and otherwise against such conditions, among the speakers being R. D. Douglas, Greensboro; R. C. Hood, Greensboro; A. K. Joy, Hickory; W. S. Creigton, Charlotte; J. L. Ludlow, Winston-Salem. The first business meeting is to be in Raleigh soon after the Legislature convenes in January. Each of the commercial organizations in the State that joins the State association is to elect a member of the board of directors.

Dr. B. W. Kilgo, State chemist and manager of the State experiment farms, has brought the special exhibit car showing results of State test farm work to Raleigh this week for the State fair and it is attracting special attention. This car has been on the road for some time. It has already spent some time at Asheville, Waynesville, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, North Wilkesboro and, after spending the week here will be in Concord and Charlotte next week, also visiting Hickory, Mooresville and other points later. This car is intended to reveal to the people in all parts of the State where it is shown the results being obtained from the State experiment farms conducted by the State Department of Agricultural under the immediate supervision of Dr. Kilgo. It shows varieties of farm crops best adapted to different soils, fertilizers that should be used under various conditions, these exhibits including some applicable to all parts of the State through which the chain of State test farms extends. With the car are experts who explain to visitors the test farm work and the benefit that individual farmers may derive from them.

A charter was issued today for the Union Bank, of Oxford, capital $100,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed by W. L. Pearce, J. S. Bradsher, J. D. Brooks and L. F. Perkinson for general savings and commercial banking business.

Mr. J. Leake Carraway, managing secretary of the Greater Charlotte Club, here to attend the meeting to perfect the organization of the State-wide Chamber of Commerce or board of trade, accepted today an invitation by telegraph to address the Yorkville, S. C., Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting to be held Wednesday night of this week.

Capt. H. E. Eames, of the United States Infantry, recently detailed by the War Department at Washington for service with the North Carolina National Guard as inspector-instructor, arrived today and reported for duty to Acting Adjutant General Gordon Smith. He succeeds Capt. A. J. Dougherty, who has rejoined his regiment in the Philippine Island service.

Sheriff R. H. Edwards, of Wayne county, was here today to deliver to the penitentiary Mallison Sutton, a negro woman, to serve twelve months for larceny.

Here this week in connection with the State fair is a special meeting of farm demonstrators—65 of them from every section of the State— called together by C. R. Hudson, of the United States Department of Agriculture, in charge of the corn club work in this State. These men have direct charge of a mammoth exhibit of corn from over 500 contestants in the North Carolina Corn Club contests which it is declared have resulted splendidly this season. These demonstrators are making their final reports of the work of the season to Director Hudson and planning for greater campaigns next season.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE

Election of Class Officers, Etc.—Basketball, Football, Tennis, Etc.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Davidson, N. C., Oct. 15.—Davidson College has been in the midst of elections to the various school offices for the past few weeks and life on the campus is now in full sway.

The student body officers which were elected last commencement are: MacAlister Carson, Charlotte, president; Lawrence Elliotte, Winnsboro, S. C., vice president; H. M. Marvin, Jacksonville, Fla., 2nd vice president; F. W. Price, China, secretary and treasurer. The class officers which were elected the third week of school with the exception of the Freshman, are: D. A. McQueen, Red Springs, president; J. T. Wearn, Charlotte, vice president; W. C. Davis, Charlotte, secretary and treasurer. Junior class, Norman Johnson, Atlanta, Ga., president; Lumsford Richardson, Greensboro, vice president; R. S. Clary, Greensboro, secretary and treasurer. Sophomore class: L. H. Anderson, Anderson, S. C., president; F. W. Price, China, vice president; C. M. Gibbs, South Carolina, secretary and treasurer. The Freshman class officers were elected last week and are: "Dutch" Witherington Faison, president; L. R. Nash, South Carolina, vice president; W. H. Graves, Tocoa, Ga., secretary and treasurer.

The election of marshals for the year took place Monday morning. These come from the two literary societies and are: Chief marshal, P. F. Thompson, Anderson, S. C., Eu. Marshals, Clifton Murphy, Georgetown, S. C., Eu; S. J. LaNier, Savannah, Ga., Eu; C. L. Ferrah, Eustis, Fla., Eu; H. M. Marvin, Jacksonville, Fla., Eu; J. T. Wearn, Charlotte, Phi; MacAlister Carson, Charlotte, Phi; J. E. Carter, Mt. Airy, Phi, and E. Q. Phaar, Charlotte, Phi. These men serve at all the festivities throughout the year.

The interest on the campus is centered at present on the championship baseball games between the class teams. The boys have been working faithfully ever since school opened and each team is expecting to win the cup which goes with the championship. The captains of the teams are: Senior, T. J. Wearn; Junior, F. J. Hay; Sophomore, J. C. McDonald, and Freshman, E. McA. Currie.

The football team has been working every afternoon until dark getting ready for the A. & M. game in Charlotte on the 26th. Coach Cook and Captain Graham are going at things with a vim and neither the players or the student body seem blue over the defeat by Carolina last Saturday. There is a practice game here next Saturday with Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute. This is preparatory to the A. & M. game, and although the team has been some weakened by injuries and the loss of several players the pass word by both players and men is "On to Charlotte."

The athletics this year are entirely under Coach Cook. Aside from football, the track and gym teams have been working hard. Mr. Cook is also giving boxing lessons and almost every boy in school is in one or more of the athletic activities.

Last week saw the close of the tennis tournament for the championship of Davidson in both doubles and singles. The double finals were between Messrs. Pim and Johnson and Crawford and White. The latter team won and will represent the school against Urskin and the several other schools scheduled. The single finals were the closest witnessed here in years. The finals were between Messrs. Crawford last year's champion, and Turrentine, a Freshman, who is champion of the city of Charlotte. Each of the first four sets went to deuce and then some. The fifth set went to six-six and on the 13th game the score stood thirty all. Turrentine, however, got nervous and Crawford won, 8-6.

Davidson College has two debates on hand and expects several more. The annual debate with South Carolina will be held as usual in Rock Hill. They also have one with Wake Forest in Winston-Salem. The subject of this latter debate which has just been announced is, "Resolved that United States Ships should use the Panama Canal Free of Toll."

The handsome cup offered by Mr. Belk, of Charlotte, to the fraternity making the highest average in their studies, has just been awarded to the Kappa Sigma bays for last year's standings which have just been completed. This is a high honor and the friends of the Kappa Sigmas will be delighted to hear of it.

PROGRESSIVE DUNN.

More Satisfactory Freight Handling—Mr. Godwin on the Stump.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., Oct. 15.—The citizens of the town and the surrounding country are beginning to feel the necessity of a freight depot in another part of town. The A. C. L. Railway runs through the center of town and as the freight and passenger depot is in the same building on Main street, it necessitates the local freights doing all the shifting and all the freight being handled in the center of the town. There is a great deal of cotton, fertilizer and other commodities handled here and the traffic is getting to the point where it is dangerous to both man and beast to do business under such dangerous circumstances. This crossing on Main street has already cost the railroad over $35,000, and the prospect is that there will be more accients here if there are not changes made.

The Dunn Realty & Insurance Co., has opened up offices in the Purdie Hooks building, with Mr. W. B. Cox as manager. Messrs. Hood and Whitehead are connected with Mr. Cox in this new enterprise and will handle the real estate end of the business. Mr. Cox is originally from Sanford, but has been in South Carolina for the past year.

Mr. J. Lloyd Wade arrived yesterday with his bride, having driven through the country from Hendersonville in their automobile. Mr. Wade carried his car to Durham an after the marriage they went to Hendersonville to visit the bride's parents.

Rev. A. R. McQueen and Mr. S. J. Hooks leave for Goldsboro today and will go from there to Richmond tomorrow with other members of the North Carolina Synod to attend the centennial in that city. The Synods of Virginia and North Carolina celebrate their anniversary at the Union Theological Seminary tomorrow.

The Democrats of Harnett are making big preparations for the big rally and speaking at Lillington next Friday, when Governor Craig will address our citizenship. There will be a big picnic and barbecue and horseback parade.

Congressman Godwin has arranged to make a thorough and active canvass of the Sixth District. He has already made a brief trip through certain counties and reports the situation in good shape. He says, in his opinion, too much attention is being paid to the Senatorial fight and too little to the Democratic ticket. He thinks that an active campaign should be waged for the full Democratic ticket from Woodrow Wilson down to the smallest office in the counties.

Monday Mr. Godwin will begin an active campaign making from one to three speeches a day, at the following places: Council, October 21st, 11 A. M. Harrelson's Store, October 22nd, 11 A. M.; Jones' Cross Roads, October 22nd, 3 P. M.; Old Dock, October 22nd, 7:30 P. M.; Hallsboro, October 23rd, 11 A. M.; New Berlin, October 23rd, 3 P. M.; Lumber Bridge, October 25th, 2 P. M.; Parkton, October 25th, 7:30 P. M.; White Oak, October 26th, 11 A. M.

PEEPLES DEFEATS LYON.

Early Returns From S. C. Primary Indicate This Result.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 15.—Returns from today's primary indicates that Thomas H. Peeples, candidate for attorney general, has defeated J. Frazer Lyon, incumbent, who was a candidate for re-nomination in the second State Democratic primary held today. The vote stands: Peeples 20,470; Lyon 18,470.

The returns are very slow. Mr. Lyon has been attorney general nearly six years. Mr. Peeples is an adherent of Governor Blease, while Mr. Lyon is known as a political opponent of the Governor.

Pretty Mothers

Health is the foundation of all good looks. The wise woman realizes this and takes precautions to preserve her health and strength through the period of child bearing. She remains a pretty mother by avoiding as far as possible the suffering and dangers of such occasions. This every woman may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. One more dollar for Wilson.

Men should avoid losing their popularity in the effort to get an office.

A check on extravagance will sooner or later be worth its face value in savings.

As an innocent bystander in this campaign, President Taft seems to be lucky for getting off with the gout.

Miss May Irwin is for Wilson. Many ladies are standing by the next President and we are glad to stand with them.

The reason men are careful how they tell a secret to another man is that they know he will tell it to some other fellow and give his authority.

The court which has ruled that most any kind of woman is worth $40 a month in a home is proof that men who are not worth 30 cents have other assets of approved value.

A New York judge holds that a man has to pay alimony whether he has the money or not. Men will simply have to be nice to their wives and get them to accept their notes.

Our expensive way of doing things and having a good time all the time without regard to the cost in money spent or time wasted, is one of the reasons why we don't keep an account at the savings bank.

J. Pierpont Morgan says he did not expect any favors in return for his contribution of $150,000 to elect a Republican President. He didn't have to "expect" any favors. He simply depended on what has been the customary license and privilege always enjoyed by those mutually interested in getting all they want.

Ohioans are trying to arrange a joint discussion between Bryan and Roosevelt at Cleveland next Wednesday. Owing to the fact that a hair-brained fanatic shot the Colonel at Milwaukee on Monday, no doubt Colonel Bryan will refuse to undertake anything like dragging a wounded lion around by the mane.

On the 5th of November the Republican party will be repudiated as the partner of trusts who levy tribute on a once free people. The so-called Progressive party will be repudiated because it is the avowed advocate of tariff robbery and the sponsor for dangerous political nostrums that make it the degenerate offspring of the old party of privilege and plunderers of the people.

If it weren't for a few offices, Democrats wouldn't have a thing against each other. As it is, however, some of them act like the office-seeking Republicans who were told to their faces by President Taft that it would be good for them if the Democrats held all the offices. If there is anything that makes some Democrats act like Republicans it is the pie counter with the juice dripping off its edges.

Inasmuch as panics, hard times, and the high cost of living in this country have occurred under Republican administrations during the past 50 years, when all the Presidents have been Republicans, except one, the Republican spielers and squealers in this campaign are the last people in the world to attempt to create alarm against a Democratic administration. The truth is, the people would regard it as a positive scourge and deplorable misfortune for the government to again fall into the hands of a party which is in league with Big Business freebooters, oppressive trusts and tariff grafters.

ELECTORAL NOMINATIONS MADE.

The Democratic party is the only one which has electoral and State tickets in all the 48 States of the Unitno. The New York World, through its correspondents at the capitals of the various States, has ascertained the facts about all the party nominations and a summary of the situation appeared in Monday World.

The Progressive Party has put electors in 44 States and has slipped up in four States—Idaho, Wisconsin, South Carolina and Missouri. In North Carolina the Progressive party has electors in every Congressional district except two and these may be supplied this week. In South Carolina the Bull Moose party has hardly a respectable organization, but the Progressives and Republicans claim that they will have a full set of electors in the field. So far, however, neither have made nominations, and it will be more or less absurd for either or both to waste the time to do so. Says the World:

"Dispatches to The World from its correspondents at the 48 State capitals show that in all but four States—Idaho, Wisconsin, South Carolina and Missouri—the Progressive party has projected electors into the field. For the most part the name used is "Progressive", but there are exceptions, as in Pennsylvania, where "Washington" is the title, and in Nebraska, California and South Dakota, where the name and emblem of the Republicans are used. Court proceedings may result in the projection of Roosevelt electors into the Missouri contest. In Delaware there are two Progressive parties trying to control the State patronage. In Pennsylvania the Republicans and Progressives are united on a State ticket for the same purpose. In New York and New Jersey the Progressives have indorsed regular Republican candidates. In all of the Southern States the war between the Republican factions indicates a record-breaking majority for the Democratic Presidential candidate. In Wisconsin and Washington the regular Republicans and La-Follette supporters indicate their purpose to vote for the Democratic candidate. In Virginia the Roosevelt Progressives are supporting a Taft stand-pat candidate for Congress.

There are Taft electors in all the States except California, where the Progressives captured the Republican machine and nominated Roosevelt electors to go on the official ballot as Republicans. In Idaho, however, a much smaller State, the Progressives have no showing. The courts have barred their electors from the ballot. The following is an interesting summary of the present standing of the three parties in the various States:

In Alabama the Progressives have an electoral ticket in the field, but are trading with the straight goods Republicans over local offices.

In Arkansas there is a complete list of Roosevelt electors in the field and the Taft and Progressive factions are conducting a bitter struggle for the mastery, with the certain result that Wilson will have the largest majority ever given a Presidential candidate.

In Arizona there are full Democratic, Republican and Progressive electors in the field.

In California there are no Taft electors in the field, the Progressives having captured the Republican organization. The Progressive electors will appear on the official ballot as Republican.

In Colorado the Progressives have a full electoral ticket. They apparently have more money at their command and a larger staff of workers than the Republicans and Democrats combined.

There is a full set of Roosevelt electors in Connecticut.

Delaware voters are confronted by two Progressive electoral tickets, one of which is supporting the regular Republican State candidates and the other a straight ticket of their own.

Florida has a full set of Progressive electors and the Taft and Roosevelt supporters are far apart, with the indications of a record-breaking majority for Wilson.

Georgia has a full set of Progressive electors with the chances favoring a smaller combined vote against Wilson than ever cast by the Republicans.

Indiana voters are to find full Democratic, Republican and Progressive candidates on their ballots.

In Idaho the Progressives have no electors, the Supreme Court having barred them from the ballot. But they have a full State ticket.

In Illinois the Progressives have full electoral and State tickets, as have the other parties

In Iowa two Republican electors have resigned to become electors on the Progressive ticket. The Progressives have a State ticket and candidates in all but three of the Congressional Districts.

In Kansas all the parties have full electoral as well as State tickets in the field. The tangle over electors was straightened out two or three days ago when the Republicans put up a full electoral ticket to take the place of candidates who resigned to accept the Progressive indorsement.

In Kentucky there is a full Progressive electoral ticket.

In Louisiana the snarl over the right of the Progressives to name electors has been settled by the nomination of a full electoral ticket by that party.

In Michigan there are full Progressive electoral and State tickets.

In Mississippi the Progressives are represented by a full electoral ticket.

In Maine the Progressives have a complete independent electoral ticket, State candidates having been chosen in September. The Progressives are conducting an active campaign, while the Republicans have not held a rally.

In Maryland there is a full quota of Progressive electors as well as a State ticket.

In Massachusetts Roosevelt electors have been put up in part, there being four districts where they do not appear. There is also a straight Progressive State ticket.

A legal battle is in progress in Missouri regaring the right of the Roosevelt party to nominate electors. The straight goods Republicans sought to enjoin the Progressives from naming electors under the primary law. One decision favors the Roosevelt people. A final decision on appeal is expected early.

Each party has a full quota of electors in Montana.

A full set of electors has been put up by the Progressives in Minnesota.

The Nevada Progressives have a full set of electors in the field and there is a spirited contest for the supremacy between the supporters of it and the straight goods Republicans.

Roosevelt electors, eight in number, will remain on the ballot in Nebraska as Republicans, while the Taft electors must be listed by petition without party designation. This is due to the result of the primary contest, in which Roosevelt won the party machinery.

The Roosevelt party has a full quota of electors in New Mexico.

All the Roosevelt electors have been put up in New Jersey. Two of the Congress candidates of that party have secured the Republican nomination.

In New Hampshire there is a full set of Roosevelt electors.

In New York full electoral and State tickets have been nominated by the Progressives. One regular Republican Senatorial candidate and one of the Republican candidates for the Supreme Court—G. D. B. Hasbrouck—have been indorsed by the Progressives.

In North Carolina Progressive electors have been named in all but two Congressional districts, and these may be supplied next week.

The North Dakota Progressives have a full set of electors.

The ten electors in Oklahoma are evenly divided between Taft and Roosevelt and have agreed to vote for the one that polls the largest number of Republican votes.

The Roosevelt and Republicans electors in Ohio are entirely separate and both parties have State tickets in the field.

Oregon Progressives have a full electoral ticket.

The squabble in Pennsylvania over the electoral tickets has been settled and both the Taft and Roosevelt electors will have places on the official ballot. The Taft electors will be designated as "Republican," the Roosevelt as "Washington". Both factions have united on a State ticket.

The Progressives have nominated a full electoral ticket of five in Rhode Island

In South Carolina both the Republicans and Progressives have announced that they will have a full set of electors in the field, but so far neither has made nominations.

The only "Republican" electors in South Dakota are for Roosevelt, the State organization being in the hands of his supporters, who have confiscated the party emblem.

Roosevelt electors have been put up in all the Tennessee districts.

In Texas the Progressives have a full set of electors, as also have the straight goods Republicans.

Four Roosevelt electors have been put up by his supporters in Utah, but they are supporting a Taft stand-pat Congressman in the Ninth district.

In Vermont the Progressives are represented by a full set of electors.

The Roosevelt supporters in Washington have put up a full electoral ticket. Many of the Taft leaders are urging their partisans to vote for Wilson to keep Roosevelt from carrying the State.

In Wisconsin no Roosevelt electors have been put up as yet, but the managers of that party say they will be named before the expiration of the limit. Senator LaFollette is opposing Roosevelt, while Governor McGovern is supporting him. Many of the Senator's followers say they will vote for Wilson. The Senator has not indicated his purpose to vote for the Democratic candidate.

The Roosevelt party in West Virginit has put up a full set of electors. Both factions are supporting the State ticket in an effort to control the State patronage.

A full set of Roosevelt electors is up in Wyoming in opposition to the regular Republican nominees.

CHICANCERY OF THE COURT

The Bull Moose party had the courts with it in chiseling Taft out of the nomination of electors on the Republican ticket in the State of California, but in Idaho the Supreme Court has turned the tables on the Bull Moosers. No Roosevelt electors will be permitted on the ballots. Of course, the court decisions in both States are presumed to be based upon the respective but differing State laws, but Colonel Roosevelt, while approving the steal of the Progressive party, in California, characterizes the decision in Idaho as "chicancery" and denounces it as "an infamy."

By decision of the Supreme Court of Idaho, the Roosevelt electors in that State will not appear on the ballot because it is decided that the Progressive party has no legal standing in Idaho. However, the men and women voters of the State can write in the names of electors, but that will be tedious and will hardly give Colonel Roosevelt any chance in Idaho. In a dispatch to Paul Davis, secretary of the Progressive committee at Boise, Colonel Roosevelt used this strong language concerning the Supreme Court:

"I desire to appeal to the men and women of Idaho not to permit themselves to be disfranchised as the court has sought to disfranchise them. It is impossible to protest too strongly against what is literally the infamy of the decision. It is an attempt to beat the cause by trickery and chicanery because those who inspired the attempt know that they have no chance of success in a fair and open fight. The Republican State Central Committee and the reactionary court are counting upon the hope that individually men and women will not take the trouble to write in the names of the Progressive candidates on the ballot."

The Colonel uses strong language concerning the Idaho court because it is against him, but he had only commendation for the California court which upheld the wrong against Taft in California. It all depends upon whose ox is good, as the farmer said to his neighbor in the homely fable in old Webster's blue-back spelling book.

It is quite possible that the courts in both California and Idaho decided according to law, but in both States a wrong has been done under the guise of law. The reports of the decisions in several States concerning electoral tangles will be interesting and they will serve to show the great lack of uniformity in the election laws of our various States.

THE SHOOTING OF COLONEL ROOSEVELT

The South was shocked at the news that an assassin made an attempt to assassinate ex-President Theodore Roosevelt at Milwaukee on Monday afternoon. We know that this deplorable occurrence will give pain to the entire nation, but in no portion of it will the deed be denounced with more horror than in North Carolina. It is all the more distressing since, the wound of Colonel Roosevelt has proven to be more serious than it at first appeared to the surgeons who examined the course of the bullet fired by the assassin.

The attempt upon the ex-President's life was the work of a fanatic who evidently had become crazed by the excitement of the campaign. It is nothing that he was a Socialist, or if he had been a Republican or a Democrat, for the man who fired the shot evidently was insane, or feigned insanity to cover up his crime. His statements and notes, however, seem to show that he is simply an overwrought crank, whose mind has become badly deranged.

However, regrettable this shocking affair may be, it might have been expected. We feared nothing from the sane men of the country but we confess to having had constant dread that the bitterness of the campaign would stir up some fool or lunatic among the 90,000,000 people of the country. This is no time to say who is to blame for the conditions which have inspired a crazy Socialist to resort to the pistol, but it is hoped that Colonel Roosevelt will soon be able to appear again and finish up his marvelous campaign. Meanwhile, he will have the sympathy of the men of all parties over the blow that struck him down. It was a crime against free speech as it was a heinous crime against one of the Republic's most distinguished men. We deeply regret that it occurred, but we rejoice that it occurred no where in the South.

Patriotic Americans ought to vote for Woodrow Wilson because he proposes to remedy the proven evils of government under Republicanism. He proposes by tariff reduction to do justice to the masses, while the Bull Moose party turns its back on the masses to indulge in meaningless twaddle about industrial and social justice which can best be attained by the Democratic proposition to take the hands of the tariff freebooters out of the pockets of the people. The Democratic party is the only one which proposes to scotch the crowd which is doing the robbing under the tariff policies of the old and the new parties of privilege.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Today was set for the tobacco boosters' trip to the surrounding country to advertise Greensboro's tobacco market. A number of automobiles were prepared to start at an early hour this morning, each one taking a different direction and scattering advertising on the subject, but rain stopped proceedings until a later date.—Greensboro Record, Oct. 14.

Mr. Taft would doubtless feel encouraged if some one should tell him that the Republican membership of the Georgia Legislature would be doubled when the next session meets. It would not be necessary to inform him also that there was only one Republican in the last Legislature, Mr. Pickett, of Pickens. Next June he will be joined by John A. Corn, of Towns. Mr. Corn has a suggestive name for a North Georgia mountaineer, but he should hail from Cobb, by all means.—Savannah News.

During the week from October 7th to 12th, the people of North Carolina made additions to the Wilson campaign fund to the extent of $1,048.50.

The FIRM THAT PAYS YOUR CARFARE

The report of Mr. Hugh MacRae, the treasurer of the fund, shows that subscriptions previously reported were $5,038.85. To this is added $1,599.50 from Charlotte, Wilmington and other points, making a total of $7,684. The amounts reported by the Raleigh News and Observer are $8,699, making a grand total of $16,383 so far contributed by the State, Wilmington was the largest contributor last week, with $657.50.—Charlotte Observer.

Dan R. Hanna, of Cleveland, son of the late Mark Hanna, largely interested in iron and steel, steamboats and railroads, admits that he has contributed $177,000 to the third term movement. His testimony before Senator Clapp's committee may be summarized thus: When did you become a Progressive in politics? Last Spring. When did the Taft administration indict you and your associates for rebating? April 26, 1911. There may be men at Armageddon battling with the Lord for social justice who have a better excuse than this, but we doubt it.—New York World.

The market experiment with Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont has carried on this week has prompted her aid, Mrs. M. A. Morgan, to declare. Women butchers, women poultry raisers and women provision merchants would not only help very greatly to reduce the cost of living, but women engaged in these enterprises would help to solve the industrial problems which make life for the working woman of the city more difficult year by year. Appreciating the seriousness of this subject, it may be added that the man who has to be urged to do the family marketing will not have to be coaxed if Mrs. Belmont's idea is put into wider and general practice.—Boston Globe.

Two registration days have yielded fewer names in New York City than in 1908, when the result of the election was practically assured in advance. For this, baseball and the pouring in of unnaturalized immigrants are held accountable. Such explanations are not broad enough. The tendency is not new. Even in 1908 New York State cast 307,000 fewer vates than it would have done if voting had been in the same proportion to population as in 1888. In the whole country the 1908 vote was 2,000,000 below the 1888 ratio. The reason why more voters did not register is probably that they did not sufficiently care to do so. They are not yet in earnest in the campaign. Considering the importance of the issues at stake, it is advisable for every man to get interested before the books close.—New York World.

REGISTER!

See that your name is on the registration books. Remember they will be closed after Saturday, October 26. NOTES OF THE BOYS' BRIGADE

First Basketball Games of the Season Will be Played Friday Night—Second Address in Series—Lyceum Course

Basketball enthusiasm is now at its height among the members of the Boys' Brigade and all the players are anticipating the first game of the season Friday night with great interest. New uniforms have been ordered by all the teams and these will be worn just as soon as they arrive from New York.

On Friday night there will be three games, the contestants being four teams representing the Boys' Brigade and two representing the Y. M. C. A. The personnel and ability of the players justifies the expectation that the best basketball ever seen in the city will be played this season.

Four teams representing the Junior Department opened their series Monday afternoon when the team of H. Fergus and I. Palmgren met and after 30 minutes of strenuous play the score stood 17 to 9 in favor of Fergus. The teams of M. Register and W. Montgomery also did battle, Montgomery winning by the score of 18 to 9. Class B league met Monday night and selected B. Cameron, L. Walton, J. Fowler and C. Gerdes as captains, and these teams will begin playing tonight when Cameron will meet Walton and Fowler will meet Gerdes. The public is invited to witness all of these games free of charge.

The second address of a series to be delivered at the Boys' Brigade armory this season upon educational subjects was presented on Monday night by C. C. Loughlin, Esq., upon the subject of law, he tracing the history, development and application of law from the earliest times to the present in a clear and comprehensible manner, which proved both interesting and very instructive to the large gathering of the members who were present to hear him. The next address will be delivered by Dr. Geo. C. Worth, who will discuss the civil and political life of China, a country with which he is thoroughly familiar from a long residence among the Chinese. This will be presented next Monday night.

The holders of tickets to the Brigade Lyceum Course will be pleased to learn that the first number of the course will be presented on next Tuesday night when the Metropolitan Concert Company will be the attraction. The personnel of this company is Miss Ethel Tozier, concert pianist; Miss Edna Dunham, soprano; Miss Marian May, contralto; Mr. Royal Dadmun, basso, and Mr. John Finnegan, tenor. Miss Ethel Tozier is a young artist of great ability and talent who is rapidly winning her way to the very foremost ranks of American pianists. Having had several seasons abroad studying under the best teachers of Europe, and with the experience gained on tour as concert pianist with the Victor Herbert Orchestra, beside numberless engagements in piano recitals, Miss Tozier is an unusually well equipped musician; while among American sopranos who are now winning recognition both at home and abroad, none are achieving more wonderful success than Edna Dunham. Miss Marian May possesses a charming personality and a delightful stage presence, coupled with a contralto voice that is as rare as it is beautiful. It has warmth and richness to an unusual degree, her range is large, a compass of nearly three octaves. Miss May will be pleasantly remembered here as the lady who so captivated her audience while here with the Zoellner String Quartette last Spring. No singer on the last season's course left a more lasting impression. Mr. Royal Dadmun has a beautiful bass voice and his splendid mastery of style and technique makes all that he does significent and impressive. His interpretative powers are immensely satisfying and are always full of life and color and intention. He sings also with an authoritative touch that leaves you in no doubt as to his command of himself and his voice is rarely rich and expressive. Mr. John Finnegan is a young Irish tenor who reached New York barely two years ago, and practically unknown, and who in this brief period has won the enviable position of chief soloist of the great Cathedral choir of St. Patrick's, is rapidly becoming known outside the metropolis.

As practically all the season tickets have been sold for this great course there will probably be no sale of single admission tickets for this concert as every seat in the auditorium will be taken by regular subscribers. The sale of reserved seats will begin at W. R. Dosher's next Monday morning and continue until Tuesday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

FOOTBALL GAME SATURDAY

Wilmington and Rocky Mount High School to Play at League Park

Interest at the High School centers in the football game Saturday with the strong Rocky Mount team. Last year these teams played a scoreless tie game in one of the hardest fought contests ever seen on the local gridiron.

This season the High School boys are confident of victory in view of the fact that the team averages 140 pounds and is unusually fast. Coach Shaw is putting the finishing touches on the eleven this week and to all appearances they will make any high school team in the State "go some" to stay with 'em.

Tickets are now on sale and many have already been disposed of. This year a season ticket is being offered the public by the Athletic Association and they are proving quite popular. Manager Strange has arranged an attractive folder with the 1912 schedule which also contains the names of the football squad. The school is preparing to "whoop 'em up" for Wilmington Saturday and a great crowd is expected. The line-up will be announced in a few days.

AGAIN THE SEWERAGE MATTER

Agreement Between City and the Sewerage Co. Did Not Seem Likely Yesterday — Further Consideration Today.

For the purpose of formally turning over to the City of Wilmington the existing sewerage plant and thus finally ending the controversy over the question that has existed for the past two or three years, Mr. W. B. D. Smith, of the Wilmington Sewerage Company, and Mr. Congers, representing the West End Trust Company, arrived yesterday morning from Philadelphia and held two conferences during the day with members of Council and the city attorneys. Apparently the representatives of the sewerage company and the city were but little nearer an agreement at the end of the second conference than at the beginning of the first, but as the question is to be further considered at the regular meeting of Council this morning, there is still a chance of a settlement.

Represented by Hon. John D. Bellamy, local counsel for the sewerage company, Messrs. Smith and Congers made a formal tender to Mayor Smith at the afternoon conference. They tendered to the city a deed for the property, subject to a mortgage of $100,000 that will be held to cover the amount of new bonds issued by the sewerage company; the old bonds of the sewerage company, which have been cancelled; a bond of $1,000 with the West End Trust Co. to cover the $500 bond of the first issue that has apparently been lost; and agreed to make a deposit of $5,000 to indemnify the city in the event any suits may be brought against the corporation within 60 days from the transfer, as allowed by statute.

The tender will be rejected by the city on the advice of City Attorney Herbert McClammy, concurred in by Assistant City Attorney Geo. L. Peschau. Objection was raised to the bond offered by the West End Trust Company to indemnify the city in the event the $500 bond that is lost is ever offered for payment, and a new bond in another company will likely be tendered this morning. The reason given for the rejection of the bond was that the attorneys did not know the rating of the company.

The main point at issue is the size of the bond to protect the city against any suits that may be brought within 60 days from the date of the transfer of the property. The city is contending for $10,000 bond and will not agree to yield a bit. City Attorney McClammy notified Mr. Bellamy that at the meeting this morning a formal tender will be made of a certified check for $30,000, counsel having waived tender of actual cash, the amount of the first payment on the plant, and will expect in return a formal transfer of the plant, $10,000 bond to protect the city against any suits that may be started within the time named above, and a satisfactory bond covering the $500 bond of the old issue that has been lost.

Apparently both sides are lining up for a fight in the courts, though it is possible that at the meeting today the sewerage company will agree to give the bond for $10,000 or place that amount on deposit to protect the city against any suits for sixty days.

The law bearing on the matter is: Section 1130 of the Revisal of 1905, which reads:

"How Land Conveyed; certain conveyances void as to torts. Any corporation may convey lands, and all other property which is transferable by deed, by deed of bargain and sale, or other proper deed, sealed with the common seal and signed in its name by the president, vice-president, presiding member or trustee, and two other members of the corporation, and attested by a witness or witnesses, or by deed of bargain and sale, or other proper deed, sealed with the common seal and signed in its name by the president, a vice-president, presiding member or trustee, and attested by the secretary or assistant secretary of the company. But any conveyance of its property, whether absolutely or upon condition, in trust, or by way of mortgage, executed by any corporation, shall be void and of no effect as to torts committed by such corporation prior to, or at any time, of the execution of said deed: Provided, Persons injured, or their representatives, shall commence proceedings or actions to enforce their claims against said corporation within 60 days after the registration of said deed, as required by law."

It is generally hoped that the question will be definitely settled at the meeting this morning.

PORT PARAGRAPHS.

The British Steamer Glenroy and Two Schooners Arrived Yesterday.

The British steamer Glenroy, Capt. Freeman, arrived yesterday from Huelva with cargo of fertilizer materials to be discharged at the Seaboard Air Line terminals. Mr. Henry Whyte is the agent for the vessel.

Two schooners arrived in port yesterday from New York. The schooner Aetna brought a cargo of salt for the D. L. Gore Company and the George W. Truitt has a cargo of fertilizer materials for the Armour Fertilizer Works. Messrs. Maffitt & Wood are agents for both vessels.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer says: "Although there was only two feet of water in the Cape Fear river this morning, telegrams from the weather bureau advises of a considerable rise, caused by heavy rains in the upcountry."

The British steamer Kylestrome, Capt. Muir, cleared yesterday for Havre, France, with cargo of 10,323 bales of cotton, valued at $619,000. Both the vessel and cargo are by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son.

Permit for New Building.

The building inspector issued a permit yesterday to Armour & Co., for the erection of a handsome new building to be used as the home of the company in this city on Water street, between Market and Dock. The building is to be two stories in height and it is estimated that it will cost about $25,000. Work on the structure will be commenced right away.

THE BIG PYTHIANS RALLIES

Arrangements for Gatherings to be Held at Four Points in State in November Being Made—Supreme Lodge Officers.

Arrangements are being rapidly completed for Pythian rallies or Founders' Bible Classes, which are to be held at four points in the State in November, and will mark another step in the campaign for new members inaugurated by Col. Walker Taylor, of this city, Grand Chancellor. The programme for the three meetings are expected to be announced in a short time, and they will include a number of features, in addition to the initiation of a large class of candidates at each of the four places where the rallies will be held.

The rallies wil be held in the following cities on the nights of the dates named: Charlotte, November 18th; Greensboro, November 19th; Goldsboro, November 20th; Wilmington, November 21st. These gatherings will be attended by the Grand Chancellor and other Grand Lodge officers, and the following Supreme Lodge officers will be in attendance: Mr. Thos. J. Carling, of Macon, Ga., Supreme Chancellor; Mr. Brig. S. Young, of Ohio, Supreme Vice Chancellor; Mr. Fred E. Wheaton, of Minneapolis, Minn., Supreme Keeper of Records and Seal, and Capt. Thos. D. Meares, of Wilmington, Supreme Master of Exchequer.

The lodges at the four places where the rallies will be held have been requested to make proper arrangements for an open meeting to be held prior to the ritualistic work. Obligation will be taken by members of the classes of candidates on the original Bible used by the founders of the order and owned by Rathbone, whose family presented it to the Supreme Lodge. At the open meeting there will be a number of short addresses, and there will be a musical programme.

There is a great demand from every part of the country for the Supreme Keeper of Records and Seal, and the Rathbone Bible, and it is almost a special favor to secure his presence.

One of the features of the rally in Wilmington will be the reorganization of Germania Lodge, which suspended some months ago.

FRANCHISE IS REFUSED

County Commissioners Will Not Allow Use of Public Highway for Car Line to Sunset Park—Makes an Offer.

Acting favorably upon the report of the committee appointed to inquire into the matter, the County Commissioners in adjourned session yesterday afternoon declined to grant the petition of the Tidewater Power Company for a franchise to build an electric line along the right of way of the Federal Point road from Greenfield Park to the southern part of Sunset Park, a distance of about three miles. The petition was refused on the ground that the highway is not any too wide now for the present traffic and that to lessen its width would mean serious congestion and inconvenience when that part of the county develops as it most surely will in a few years.

The Commissioners did not want to seem to be standing in the way of progress and realizing the benefit that an electric road to Sunset Park would be adopted a resolution to the effect that if the Tidewater Power Co., obtains from the individual owners a right-of-way contiguous to the highway and constructs a track thereon that the county will allow the use of its railroad and locomotive and cars for the transportation of materials, etc., at actual cost to the county. This is considered a very liberal offer on the part of the county. It is believed that the company will not have any trouble in securing the right-of-way from the owners of the property for the benefit the property owners would derive would more than offset the value of the small strip of land given for the trolley line. The Commissioners would not only like to see the electric line extended to Sunset Park, but to Carolina Beach, which gives promise of being developed within the next few years. Mr. B. Solomon was present at the meeting yesterday and when he heard the outline of the resolution that was afterwards adopted remarked that it will meet with the approval of a majority of the people of the county, who were hopeful that the board would not grant the use of any portion of the highway, which all consider none too wide for the present traffic. Mr. Solomon also mentioned the fact that with the present temporary railroad down on one side of the highway the road is entirely too narrow and detracts from its value as a public road. Chairman McEachern remarked that the highway would not be considered completed until the temporary railroad has been removed and the portion of the road used by it thrown open to the public.

The report of the committee, which was unanimously adopted by the board, follows:

"Whereas, recent developments have demonstrated that the macadam roads built by the county are well patronized and that a standard roadbed of 30 feet is not too wide even for present traffic, we would consider it unwise to lessen the width of these highways and that petition to occupy any portion of said highway be not granted.

"But, in order not to seem to stand in the way of progress this board would agree and allow the Tidewater Power Company the use of its present temporary railroad track to Sunset Park and railroad equipment to widen and build such roadbed as may be needed for the purpose as set forth in their petition at such actual costs as the county may incur.

"Details of this proposition, if accepted within 10 days, to be agreed upon later."

While no action was taken on the matter, the County Commissioners do not look with especial favor upon the proposition to hold a special term of Superior Court in December, beginning as it would, on the 16th day of the month and continuing through the holidays. Judge Frank Carter has signed a petition to Governor Kitchin to call a special term to begin December 16th and while the Governor may call the term without any action by the Board of Commissioners, yet it is customary for the request for an extra term of court to come through the Commissioners. Members of the board stated that a number of lawyers had said that they do not want a term of court at that time as it will cause them to have to work during the holidays. County Attorney Marsden Bellamy was asked to confer with the attorneys and ask that a meeting of the bar be held so as to get an expression from the lawyers as to whether they desire the special term. If the lawyers want the special term the Commissioners will likely join Judge Carter in the petition, otherwise they probably will not.

The valuation of the property of Mrs. Catherine Harriss at Carolina Heights was reduced from $5,000 to $2,500.

FELL THROUGH BRIDGE.

Dr. F. W. Avant, Well Known Colored Physician, Badly Injured.

In crossing the bridge over the A. C. L. tracks at Fifth street last night about 10:30 o'clock, Dr. F. W. Avant, a well known colored physician, fell through the structure, which was closed to traffic for repairs, and struck on the upper railroad tracks under the bridge, receiving a broken leg and a number of bruises. He was taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, where he is being given attention. The bridge has been closed for several days and repairs are being made to the structure. Dr. Avant is quoted as saying that he saw the lights up, but thought he could cross over anyway. Report of the accident was made to police headquarters and Officer M. C. Gray went to the scene. Dr. Avant had already been removed when the officer arrived and was sent to the hospital.

TUBERCULOSIS SUNDAY.

Local Printers, in Response to International Body, to Observe Day.

Wilmington Typographical Union, at its last meeting, appointed a committee to confer with the various pastors of the city and urge upon them to give a part of their services on Sunday, October 27th, to a treatise on tuberculosis. The following is a copy of a letter mailed to the ministers:

"As you have, perhaps already learned, Sunday, October 27th, has been assigned by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, as the day for a National demonstration against the 'Great White Plague'. On that date churches and religious societies generally throughout the Nation are asked to give special attention to the dread disease that afflicts so many thousands of our people and is menacing the health of us all.

"Already thousands of churches and societies throughout the country have expressed that they will observe the day, and as the printing craft is deeply interested (being in fact the first craft to take up the fight against tuberculosis) our International Union, representing 60,000 men and women, has requested each local body to take the matter up with the churches in its jurisdiction and ascertain if any or all of them will give a part of their services on October 27th to a dissertation on tuberculosis.

"Wilmington Union has appointed a committee which will be glad to hear from you on the subject, feeling that you are as deeply interested in the 'cause of cleanliness and health' as it is.

"Should you decide to concur in this, we will be glad to hear from you at an early date as the committee desires to make mention of the day in the daily papers of the city and will then publish a list of all the churches where services will be appropriate to the subject.

"Soliciting your co-operation in a cause that works for all humanity, we remain. "Sincerely,

"WILMINGTON TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION."

The Typographical Union was the first labor body to start a campaign against this disease and when the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis named Sunday, October 27th, as a day for a National demonstration the printers, logically, fell into line and are using every means within their power to help it along.

The chairman of the local committee, Mr. J. Dana Jones, says that he had been advised by the president of the International Typographical Union that several thousand churches throughout the Nation have already stated that they would observe the day.

All of the pastors of Wilmington have been written and some of them have already stated that they would speak on the subject that day, while it is expected that others will also, and as soon as possible a list of churches where services appropriate to the occasion will occur will be published.

It may be of interest in this connection to say that in ten years, printers have reduced the number of deaths from consumption among their craft by some 20 per cent., and increased the length of life from 41.25 to 48.09 and these gains are attributed to their fight for sanitary work rooms and an educational propaganda among the craft for "cleanliness."

It has also been demonstrated by the union printers, which at Colorado Springs maintains the only sanatorium in the world belonging to a labor organization, that tuberculosis is communicable, preventable and curable.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING IN MAXTON, N. C.

Maxton, N. C., Oct. 15.—At the Presbyterian church here this afternoon, just a few minutes later than the announced hour of a quarter to six, took place a marriage in which Miss Virginia Everett, eldest daughter of Capt. J. C. Everett, became the bride of Mr. Harry Schmoele, a young and prominent business man of Portsmouth, Va.

More than local interest was taken in this marriage for the bride is an especially charming young woman and is exceedingly popular in eastern North Carolina and in Southeastern Virginia in both of which sections she has lived.

Preceding the ceremony, with Mrs. R. M. Williams at the piano, Misses Leila Barnes and Emma Belle MacRae sang "Beauty's Eyes" and "I Love You Turly." Between the two songs, down the center aisle came the members of the Merry-Go-Rounds, a local pleasure club, of which the bride is a popular member.

At the close of the second song and while the last notes were still lingering, the tremulously tender notes of Mendelssohn's Wedding March filled the church, to the notes of which the bridal party entering from the central door and down the side aisles took their position on the platform, beautifully decorated with palms and ferns. Just preceding them were the ushers: B. S. Barnes, E. E. Murchison, J. J. Baldwin and W. June McKay. The couples composing the bridal attendants were Miss Mary Carroll Williams, of Portsmouth, Va., with L. S. Everett, of Wilmington, N. C.; Miss Geneva Moore, of Burgaw, N. C., with D. F. Armfield, of Maxton, N. C.; Miss Margaret Baldwin with D. G. Everett, both of Maxton; Miss Sue Boon, of Wilmington, with E. T. Carrowan, of Maxton; Miss Jeanette Moore, of Burgaw, with J. E. Everett, of Portsmouth, Va.; Miss Bessie McLeod, of Maxton, N. C., with Locke Everett, of Monroe, N. C. The bridesmaid wore pink crepe de chine over messaline and carried white carnations.

Following these came the ribbon bearers, Masters McKay McKinnon, Jr., and J. E. Everett, Jr., in white linen suits; then the beautiful little flower girls, Misses Amelia and Laura Wall Everett, dressed in white lace over pink. Following these little folk came the dame of honor, Mrs. J. A. Northam, of Wilmington, N. C., handsomely gowned in pink messaline over white Marquisette, and carrying Killarney roses; the maid of honor, Miss Emily Everett, a sister of the bride, wearing dew-drop chiffon over pink messaline and carrying Killarney roses; with her father, the bride in an exquisitely designed white embroidered net robe over white satin with pearl trimmings and for her only ornament wearing the gift of the groom a handsome sunburst of pearls set with diamonds and carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. At the altar they were met by the groom, Harry Schmoele, with his brother, F. J. Schmoele, of Portsmouth, Va.

In an impressive manner Dr. H. G. Hill, assisted by Rev. W. B. Mellwaine, Jr., and using his ceremony, "Marriage a Union," with the ring ceremony, they were shortly pronounced man and wife.

Then to the tumultously exulting notes of Lohengrin's Wedding March, the party left the church. A quick drive to the home of the bride on South Patterson street, a quicker change to traveling clothes and the newly-made man and wife were off for their tour to Northern cities.

Among the out-of-town guests in attendance were J. Dixon McLean, of Red Springs; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dennis, Mrs. Jas. A. Northam, L. S. Everett and Miss Sue Boon, of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Everett, Joe and Amelia Everett, F. J. Schmoele, Mrs. W. J. Williams and Miss Mary Carroll Williams, of Portsmouth, Va.; Misses Jeanette and Geneva Moore, of Burgaw, N. C.; Locke Everett, of Monroe, N. C.

On the night preceding the marriage a reception was given the bridal party at the home of the bride on South Patterson street.

After November 1st they will be at home at Portsmouth, Va., at 709 Riverview avenue.

..Theatrical..

"The Winning Widow" company which comes to the Academy Saturday for matinee and night, is a two act musical comedy written by Ed P. Moran. The first act is laid in the college campus of one of our most modern colleges.

The curtain rises on a beautiful scene showing the campus and the college. After the opening musical number the fun starts fast and furious. Mr. Mul Clark, that funny German comedian; Ben Turbett, as the Irishman, and William Marshall, the eccentric Frenchman, handles the comedy lines of the piece in a way that brings roars of laughter. Miss Lovey Marie Greene who plays the part of the college widow, is said to be a statuesque beauty of rare ability. Her singing is proclaimed a dominant feature of the show. Then there is Miss Leona Thompson, better known as the "Doll Comedienne." She is without a doubt the most diminutive comedienne on the American stage. This lady does a burlesque on Mme Tetrazzini, which is one of the big hits with "The Winning Widow" this season. Joe Freed and James Hunter are two clever juvenile men. Mr. Freed has a tenor voice that is seldom heard in musical comedy, while Mr. Hunter is a clever dancer and light comedian. Miss Flo Gillespie, in the part of the French Lady, is a capable actress and has a deep contralto voice and a pleasing personality. The many musical numbers and song hits of the show are written by Seymour Furth and Ed P. Moran. The second act takes place in a French gambling house. Here again the comedy situations are funny and ludicrous. Many specialties are introduced in this act which are new and novel.

The matinee will, no doubt, be a big favorite, as the prices are to be made of low character. All the downstairs will be 75 cents, while the balcony will be 50 cents, but a school child will be admitted to any part of the theatre for 25 cents. The night prices will run to $1.50. Seats for both performances will be on sale at Plummer's Friday morning.

At the Grand Theatre.

After you have been down and witnessed the finish of the world's baseball series this afternoon, or just before you go down, for that matter, why not drop in and get in a good humor at the Grand Theatre? The management has arranged a specially strong bill for the day and it should be seen and appreciated. Nowhere under the sun is more for the money offered than at the Grand and people are rapidly realizing this.

For today Mr. Leonard Chick will sing one of the greatest coon ballads ever written. It is "Mandy Lou" and it is a real Southern song and it is sure to please. A big feature for today is an Essanay "Love on Tough Luck Ranch". This is a humorous Western comedy production concerning the trials and tribulations of a young couple who elope, and the annoyances that beset them before the knot is finally tied. It is produced in the heart of the Golden West by G. M. Anderson and that should be sufficient for anyone who knows anything at all about the "moveys".

To give seriousness to the bill today there will be a Melie "Forgive Us Our Trespasses." This is the story of little Dannie, his father and a sweet girl who lives next door. An actress finally comes into the scenes and father and mother are reconciled. Beautiful in plot and pathetic in execution, this film will bring a tear to every eye and will make the bosom swell with the love of the good and pure. More films of this character would contribute much to the sum of human happiness.

In addition to these two there will be a third film and all in all patrons of this theatre will have no regrets after an attendance today.

At The Bijou

Yes, the Bijou did a rushing business again yesterday. A scowling sky can never keep the people away from their favorite amusement place, and once there they revel in the delights of a great bill and enjoy many solid comforts. The fact that people—folks by the hundreds in bad weather go to the Bijou attests as nothing else can the great popularity of this amusement palace. It should also be borne in mind that the price of admission never changes, ever remaining 5 cents, afternoon or night.

Today's bill is going to be pronounced for comedy, though the dramatic will be a powerful factor. The star in the latter line will be "A Motorcycle Adventure." It is a thrilling tale of the mountains, with a sturdy mountaineer, his pretty daughter, a brave young Easterner and a half-breed as the central characters. A thrilling motorcycle ride is the chief feature and is something decidedly novel.

Then for the comedy. It will wax fast and furious, being led by the great film, "Stern Papa." Now papa tries to catch a husband for his daughter, and, of course, the young woman objects to his choice. Then he tries objecting to his daughter's choice. What happens is a scream for mirth.

"Love's Messenger" is one of the purest and most unique of all comedy films. The French cook and the maid fall in love with each other, and the former sends a love message in a biscuit. The man of the house finds it and thinks it was intended for his wife. Trouble then ensues and it is one long, tremendous howl.

A DOLLAR A YEAR

Is All Mrs. Campbell Needs to Keep In Good Health Now, According To Her Own Statement

Moro, Ark.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Anna Campbell says: "Seven years ago I was in a critical condition—was so weak that I could not get out of bed for four weeks. I was advised to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I bought a bottle.

Before I had taken two-thirds of it, I was not only able to be up, but could do my work.

At times, now, I have headache, backache, and weak trembling spells, but it doesn't take but three or four doses of Cardui to straighten me out, ready for work.

I have been using Cardui for 11 years, but it only takes one bottle a year for me now, and I don't take any other kind of medicine.

I am also giving it to my daughter, and it is doing her all the good in the world.

I would not be without Cardui in my home."

This letter, picked at random from our file of many similar ones, should certainly convince you that Cardui is, at least entitled to a fair trial, if you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, or merely need a tonic for that tired, nervous, worn-out feeling.

Cardui has been helping weak women for over half a century. It will help you too.

Try Cardui.

ANOTHER BREAK IN COTTON

Heavy Selling Caused Prices to Break Into New Low Ground for Season—Closed at Decline of 18 to 25 Points.

New York, Oct. 15.—There was heavy selling in the cotton market again today and prices once more broke into new low ground for the season, with the close weak at a net decline from 18 to 25 points. The opening was steady, at an advance of one point to a decline of four points and during the first few minutes the market improved on foreign buying and covering of shorts. Active months sold about 4 points above the closing figures of last night on this bulge, but there was a lot of cotton for sale on the advance to 10.58 for January, and prices soon weakened.

Various local spot houses appeared to be receiving numerous selling orders from the South, and as soon as the Liverpool close shut out arbitrage buying there was less support in the local market. Domestic spinners were said to be buying on a scale down, and there was also considerable covering by old shorts, which served to check the decline for a while around 10.42 for December and January, but the market broke through this point of resistance later in the day, when Wall Street became a heavy seller and Southern offerings appeared to be increasing. January contracts closed at 10.35, or 23 points under the high level of the morning. Reports from Memphis said that exporters were practically out of the spot market, and it was rumored around the local ring that those advices combined with the recent favorable weather had shaken the confidence of old longs and that much of the day's selling had represented liquidation of old accounts.

Spot, quiet. Middling uplands, 10.75; do. gulf, 11.00; sales, none.

Futures closed weak.

DRY GOODS MARKET

New York, Oct. 15.—The cotton goods markets were quiet today in primary sections. Jobbers did a steady business. Spring carpet openings will occur November 11th, and there will be no large carpet auction this year. The men's wear trade is cleaning up Fall stock goods.

STOCK MARKET MORE ACTIVE

Opening Was Almost Buoyant on Account of Greater Strength in Foreign Bourses—Selling Wipes Out Gains.

New York, October 15.—Taking its cue from abroad, where all bourses were stronger, as a result of support tendered by substantial interests, the stock market here opened active and almost bouyant. Gains of 1 to 2 points were numerous in the first hour, those being extended in some instances at midday, when interest centered largely in the metal issues and tobacco specialties.

In the final hour, however, a selling movement of moderate proportions wiped out the greater part of the early gains, and the market closed with an irregular undertone. The setback coincided with reports from Chicago that the wound suffered by Colonel Roosevelt was a serious one.

The beter showing of our securities and other foreign centers was followed by some buying, but this was more than neutralized by local realizing for profits.

Respecting the situation in Eastern Europe, International banking houses were in receipt of cables to the effect that negotiations were pending which are likely to produce favorable reports before the end of the week. Money was more abundant in this market. Bonds, firm, but without special feature. Total sales, par value, $2,050,000. United States government bonds were unchanged. Total sales today, 514,600 shares.

Saved By His Wife

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me. A quick cure for coughs and colds, it's the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsilitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cents and $1. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

MONTENEGRINS VICTORIOUS.

Capture Fortress of Houms—Turkish Officers Taken.

Podgoritza, Montenegro, Oct. 15.—The fortress of Houms surrendered today to the Montenegrins. Among the Turkish prisoners already captured are 62 officers, including a colonel and the commandant at Tushi. Addressing the war correspondents at Arien this afternoon, King Nicholas said he regretted the bloodshed, but hoped that it would result in a new and better era of freedom and civilization.

Assassin's Trial After Election

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 15.—States Attorney Winfred C. Sabel, of Milwaukee county, tonight definitely announced that John Schrank, Colonel Roosevelt's assailant, would not be brought to trial until after the National election, November 5th. He said the trial would be opened some time between November 11th and 15th. Mr. Zabel, who is said to be the only Socialist State's attorney in the country, gave specific reasons for his decision to put off the trial for one month.

He said, first, it was only reasonable to await the results of Colonel Roosevelt's injury; second, he had no desire to crowd the defendant, therefore gave it as his opinion that it would be unwise to call the case during the final struggle in the Presidential campaign.

"It is my desire to try this case justly and expeditiously, said Mr. Zabel, "and to avoid having the plain criminal aspects of the case in any way involved in the National political campaign. It would not be fair to any of the persons involved. If we went to trial before election day it is almost certain that the matter would be dragged into the campaign by one or another of the big political parties."

Discussing the case viewed by him, the Milwaukee county prosecutor said that as far as surface indications are concerned, Schrank was sane.

"If Schrank is insane," said Mr. Zabel, "it seems there is a method in his madness when he selects for the scene of his crime a State where there is no capital punishment.

"Also I am informed by messages from New York there has been no insanity in Schrank's family as far as can be traced. In addition the man presents none of the usual surface indications of insanity."

The State's attorney said he believed Schrank had no accomplices or advisors in the crime.

The plea of guilty filed by Schrank at his preliminary hearing in the District Court this morning, is looked upon as merely perfunctory by the public prosecutor's office.

"I shall permit Schrank to withdraw that plea when he goes to trial if he so desires," said Mr. Zabel. "He will be tried justly and fairly and can expect to receive the punishment merited by the crime."

Schrank spent a quiet afternoon and evening in his cell at the county jail. Much interest centered in the chemical tests of the remaining bullets in Schrank's revolver, which were started this afternoon by Professor R. E. L. Sommer, of Marquette University, to determine if the bullet with which Colonel Roosevelt was shot had been poisoned. Professor Sommer said that the result would not be known exactly for some time.

Schrank when questioned on this point, denied emphatically he had used poisoned bullets.

Milwaukee was remarkably quiet tonight considering the tension of last night after the shooting in front of the Gilpatrick.

Down With Roosevelt, His Motto

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 15.—"Down with Roosevelt, we want no King," is the sentiment expressed in notes found in the grip left by John Schrank, Colonel Roosevelt's would be assassin, at the Mosely House in this city, where he stopped from September 23rd to 25th.

The grip contained many pieces of manuscript, presumably written by Schrank, denouncing Roosevelt. It also contained Schrank's naturalization papers, showing that he was a Bavarian. Other articles found include a box of 38-calibre pistol cartridges, a box which had contained a pistol of the same calibre and a razor.

Schrank came to Charleston by boat from New York. Colonel Roosevelt had been invited to attend the National Great Counsel of the Improved Order of Red Men in this city, but declined.

Schrank left Charleston for New Orleans. The grip and its contents will be sent to Milwaukee authorities tomorrow.

Shooting Affects Stock Market.

New York, October 15.—The shooting of Colonel Roosevelt, was utterly without affect on the stock market at the opening today, but toward the end of the session when advices from his bedside indicated that his wound might be more serious than at first supposed, prices fell away gradually, until little or nothing remained of the early rise.

All "ticker" news and other dispatches from Chicago were scanned eagerly and the attempt on Colonel Roosevelt's life overshadowed all other topics in the financial district.

Bulletins From the Hospital

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Colonel Roosevelt bade the last of his callers good night at 8 o'clock and prepared for a comfortable night which was to be spent in part in reading. He said he felt fine and told Dr. John F. Golden, who is keeping watch over him tonight, that unless the final injection of the tetanus anti-toxin interfered he would have the first real comfortable evening to himself he had enjoyed in many days.

Colonel Roosevelt retired tonight with several copies of the writings of McAulay, several back numbers of magazines and the Bible piled on his bed.

His telegrams he had read and answered, leaving those coming after 8 o'clock to be answered tomorrow.

With his spectacles comfortably adjusted, all his books within reach, his down pillows replaced by cushions of curled hair, he told Miss Margaret Fitzgerald, the night nurse assigned to his room, that all he wanted was within his reach and that onne need worry about him till he began worrying for them. Within five minutes the crowds had gone and the hospital gave no indication that it housed an injured former President.

Sleeping Soundly at 9:30

Colonel Roosevelt laid aside his book a few minutes after 9 o'clock and switched off his reading light. He was soon fast asleep. Dr. Murphy went into the Colonel's room at 9:30 and found him fast asleep. The patient's pulse was 86 when taken before he dropped to sleep. This is two points higher than it was last night after the shooting and 14 above normal. His temperature was three-fifths of a degree above normal.

Colonel Restless at 10:20

Dr. John B. Murphy at 10:20 o'clock said that the Colonel had a temperature of 99.2 and a pulse of 86. The Colonel aroused a little shortly after Dr. Murphy saw him and seemed somewhat restless.

Shaves Himself at 10:30

After having had several short naps, Colonel Roosevelt awakened at 10:30 P. M., and called for hot water to shave himself. He sat up in bed with a hand mirror against his knees and shaved, and then was given a sponge bath and alcohol rub down by his nurse. After the bath his clinical record was taken:

Temperature, 98.8; pulse, 88.

He turned on his night light and began to read, saying he would continue until he got sleepy.

Orders Heavy Breakfast.

Col. Roosevelt told his nurse tonight as he picked up his book for a second period of reading about 11 o'clock, that he was going home to Oyster Bay on Sunday. He ordered his breakfast for 7 o'clock and said: "Mind, I want a good one. I'll be hungry."

He gave directions about his clothes and his room, to have everything in readiness to receive Mrs. Roosevelt in the morning.

"The colonel acts very eager to see Mrs. Rosevelt," said Nurse Fitzgerald.

"He talks about it quite a bit and is very particular about having everything pleasant for her."

Nurse Fitzgerald said the pulse after the sponge bath was not far above normal, considering his physical characteristics and a more important fact was its steady rhythm, she said. Col. Roosevelt after his bath and shave had no pain of any kind, but said he was slightly nervous from inaction.

Wilson Cancels Engagements.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 15.—Governor Woodrow Wilson late tonight announced that he would cancel all speaking engagements, with the exception of those arranged for Thursday and Friday of this week, until Col. Roosevelt is able to take an active part in the campaign. The Governor will speak in Delaware, West Virginia and Pennsylvania this week, concluding his campaign in Pittsburg Friday night.

Governor Wilson was asked if his active speech-making would end on his return next Saturday from Delaware, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

"Yes," he said, "I have asked my manager to arrange to cancel the engagements in New York and Brooklyn for next Saturday night."

Before issuing his statement, Governor Wilson talked over the 'phone to Democratic National headquarters in New York and to his secretary, Joseph P. Tumulty.

The Governor was deeply solicitous for news of Col. Roosevelt and asked the correspondents to keep him informed as to the bulletins issued describing the colonel's condition. He was at his home here tonight, busy most of the time in telephonic communication with his campaign managers. He received news about Col. Roosevelt's condition as late as 11 P. M.

The Governor is due to start on his short trip to Delaware, West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania late tomorrow night. When asked tonight if he would take extra precautions when appearing in public hereafter, he said he would not.

"There is nothing that can be done," he declared, "to guard against such attacks. It seems to me that police and secret service guards are useless if a mad man determines to attack a man in public life.

"I cannot cancel the engagements which are immediately ahead of me," said Governor Wilson in a statement issued tonight, without subjecting those who have arranged them to a very serious embarrassment and great unnecessary expense, but I shall cut the series at the earliest possible point."

Taft Issues Statement.

New York, Oct. 15.—President Taft issued a statement this afternoon relative to the shooting of Col. Roosevelt:

"I cannot withhold an expression of horror," he said, "at the act of the maniac who attempted to assassinate Col. Roosevelt. I feel the deepest sympathy for Mr. Roosevelt and his family and I pray that the wound may prove to be only a flesh wound and that as the surgeons predict, there may be no complications.

"I speak for the American people in expressing the profound hope that Col. Roosevelt may speedily recover from the effects of this dastardly act.

Mr. Taft sent messages to Col. Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt respectively, as follows:

"I am greatly shocked to hear of the outrageous and deplorable assault made upon you and I earnestly hope and pray that your recovery may be speedy and without suffering."

"I extend to you my heartfelt sympathy in your present distress. I earnestly hope and pray that you and your family and the country may be promptly relieved of suspense by news that all danger is passed."

Debs Comments on Assault.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 15.—Eugene V. Debs, Presidential nominee for the Socialist party, tonight made comment on the attempted assassination of Col. Roosevelt in a speech at a local auditorium:

"It was with the deepest regret that I learned of the insane attack on Col. Roosevelt's life. Every good citizen sympathizes with him and his family. While we differ with him in politics, we must deprecate this attack on the part of a madman and I am exceedingly glad to see that reports from Col. Roosevelt show that his condition is favorable. With all my heart I pray that he may recover from this attempt to strike him down and take his life. I only wish that every one could realize that nothing ever can be gained by violence."

Chicago, Ill., October 15. — The fortitude which has characterized the former Presient's acts since the shooting was unruffled this afternoon after the physicians had made their latest investigation.

The examination by doctors and X-ray pictures showed Col. Roosevelt had a miraculous escape from death. The bullet entered above the upper border of the liver, less than an inch below the lower border of the lungs. The wound, it is said, probably would have been fatal it the ball had penetrated either the lung or the liver. If the bullet had entered the same point on the left side instead of the right, it would have penetrated the heart and caused instant death.

RECORDS IDENTIFIED

Government Claims They Will Show Strike Caused Explosions

Indianapolis, Oct. 15.—Records which the government charges will show that explosions against employers of non-union workmen, before and after the Los Angeles Times disaster, resulted from a strike called against a bridge construction company in 1905 was identified by witnesses at the dynamite conspiracy trial today.

Witnesses identified many letters taken from the files of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers when Frank Buchanan, now a member of Congress, was president of the union, with headquarters in Cleveland. Mr. Buchanan preceded Frank M. Ryan, now on trial as president. The Buchanan letters, the government attorneys announced, concerned only the directing functions' interests in labor disputes, but later the situation was taken up by J. J. McNamara after Mr. Buchanan retired. None of the letters were read.

Letters between J. E. Munsey, Salt Lake City, and McNamara, prior to an explosion in a hotel under construction in Salt Lake City, in December, 1909, were identified by Miss Nora Haley, a former stenographer for McNamara. Letters from Munsey after that explosion and before one in the same hotel also were identified. The identification included letters written by McNamara to powder companies asking them for catalogues.

Mrs. Mary Hitchings, Cleveland, a farmer stnecgrapher for McNamara, hesitated about answering questions and was asked by District Attorney Miller whether any of the 45 defendants had been talking to her about her testimony. She asserted that none of the defendants had, but that Charles Smith, a brother of Peter J. Smith, Cleveland, hal talked to her and that Anton Johnannsen, indicted in California for alleged complicity in the dynamite conspiracy, had invited her out to lunch. She denied they had talked to her about her testimony.

KITCHIN AT LUMBERTON.

Governor's Brother Speaks In His Behalf—Barbecue—Convict Caught.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., Oct. 15.—Congressman Claude Kitchin spoke in the Court House here this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Owing to the busy time with the farmers the crowd was not as large as it would otherwise have been. Mr. Kitchin made about the same speech as he is reported as making in other places. He spoke about two and a half hours, during which time he went for the Robesonian, Mr. A. W. McLean and Senator Simmons, though he did not mention Mr. Craig. Great preparations had been made for a large crowd. Six hundred pounds of meat and 400 loaves of bread, besides other things that go to make up a first-class barbecue, were prepared, but nothing like half of it was used.

A brass band furnished music. Mr. R. D. Caldwell, president of the Kitchin Club, called the meeting to order and asked Editor Pool, of St. Paul, to preside. Mr. E. M. Britt introduced the speaker.

Geo. Hinson, who escaped from the Anson county chain gang some months ago, was arrested here this evening by Mr. I. V. Hooper, who recognized him. He was turned over to Chief Redfern, who locked him up. Hinson was sentenced to 12 months on the roads for shooting a deputy sheriff at Rockingham last Fall on circus day. He only served three months. When arrested he carried a pistol.
